if A/DCI approved of this matter being discussed through normal budget channels. Mr. Dulles indicated he had no objection to this procedure; however, he did not of course wish to "keep anything" from Mr. Stassen and eventually would like to discuss this matter with him. Mr. Wolf noted that if the CIA Budget Officer "ran into any trouble" in regard to these funds, A/DCI would be immediately notified.

Mr. Becker:

a. Stated he had been informed by rumor that Senator Tobey's Committee would investigate Soviet clandestine procurement in the U.S. and suggested that General Counsel keep us advised, insofar as possible, as to the Committee's activities in this matter. Mr. Wolf undertook to so notify General Counsel.

25X1 b. Reported that [] defection was still in the rumor stage.

Mr. Wolf:

25X1 a. Noted that [] had been pressing for the full-time
25X1 employment of [] who, up to the present time had been acting 25X1 as a consultant. Mr. Wolf went on to say that about a year ago it had been 25X1 decided against using [] full-time in view of statements he had made to 25X1 the Press concerning the Veterans Administration. After some discussion wherein 25X1 it was pointed out that [] was eminently qualified in his field and 25X1 sufficient time had elapsed since the above incident, it was agreed to employ [] on a full-time basis.

25X1 b. Stated that [] 25X1
25X1 [] had requested that CIA bear the expense of transporting his household goods from that city to New York; (2) there was no legal authority under which this could be done; (3) he did not recommend that an exception be made in this case. A/DCI concurred.
